THE SHIRT

- Shoulder seams sit at the outer edge of your shoulder.
- The body of the shirt is fitted with 3cm allowance on each side.
- There is no ballooning or excess fabric at the back.
- The buttons are not pulling open at the chest.
- Sleeves end just below the wrist.
- Sleeves do not bunch around the forearm and overhang the cuff.
- The shirt can be tucked in comfortably and doesn't come out throughout the day.

THE JACKET

- Shoulder seams align with the widest part of your arms.
- There is no dimple, overhanging, or pulling at the shoulders.
- The torso is well fitted through the waist, both at the front and back panels.
- There is no roll under the collar at the back of the neck.
- You can comfortably do up the top button of the jacket.
- Sleeves end below the wrist, with 1cm of shirt showing.
- Jacket ends at the bottom of the trouser zipper.
- Sleeves are tapered towards the wrist, and sits on the shirt cuffs comfortably.

THE TROUSERS

- Waist band sits flat against the body, without being too tight.
- Pants stay up even without a belt.
- The crutch is comfortably hugging the bottom, not hanging too low or riding up the bum.
- Legs are tapered towards the hem.
- There is enough room in the thighs and calves for easy movement and sitting.
- Trousers hem finishes about 2-3cms from the floor without shoes.
- Half break forms above the shoe.

If you leave more than 2 boxes unticked in any of the sections, then the garment is not well-fitting. Email us, or click the link below to make an appointment with our fitter, to find out how we can make your suit fit like it's custom made.
